CSLA's Archiving Project

Have you ever been a member of the CSLA Board, or served on a CSLA committee, working group or task force? If so, you may have valuable CSLA archives in your possession! The CSLA is asking members who may have CSLA-related material in their possession to contact Michelle Legault, CSLA Executive Director, at executive-director@csla.ca to arrange for the transfer of the CSLA's historical documents to the proper archives. The CSLA Archiving Project is specially interested in:

- Printed or published CSLA material
- Minutes of meetings
- Correspondence or agreements with component associations,
- Financial statements
- Accreditation Reports
- Awards of Excellence information
- Recognition Awards information, and
- Any other document that may be important in the CSLA's history and development.
